

The Green Team, the city of Pullman's in-house sustainability committee, has broadened its focus to energy savings within government buildings.

An energy audit of all city buildings is complete. Energy-saving lighting upgrades for various city buildings have been approved in the 2011 budget. We are already in the process of implementing energy efficiency projects at the Pioneer Center and the North Grand Fire Station.