

Minutes
Pullman Arts Commission (PAC)

Meeting Minutes - FINAL
March 9, 2006 meeting
Young Conference Room, Neil Public Library

In Attendance: Kathleen Bodley, Fritz Hughes, Anna-Maria Shannon and Andriette Pieron (Chris Bruce and Jo Savage were excused; Trace Belsford was not in attendance)

Old Business:

Treasurers Update: Hughes will talk with Shelley Bame-Aldred about assisting us when the time comes.

Ordinance: Reviewed by all in attendance.

Kasai City of Hyogo prefecture, Japan, update: there seems to be some miscommunication about the role of PAC and this program. Chair Shannon will talk with the city.

New Business:

Shannon shared information from Moscow Arts Commission's (MAC) Art Task Force. The group decided that with the information from the MAC, the original letter submitted to the city requesting an Arts Commission, and various images and information gathered by Bodley, the PAC decided to call a separate meeting to begin the process of writing the Vision Statement and Goals. This meeting will take place either March 21st or March 27th depending on PAC member participation, 4pm, in the Young Conference Room, Neil Public. This should lead to the PAC addressing City Council either in April or May.

Also discussed; a possible meeting with the Washington State Arts Commission. Shannon talked with Bitsy Bidwel of WSAC and they are meeting on the 20th of March. The City of Colfax is considering starting an Arts Commission (CAC) and has requested Bitsy to lead a meeting addressing what an Arts Commission is and what it can do for a community. Bitsy has given contact information for CAC to Shannon. Shannon will contact CAC to request attendance of one or more members of PAC (also on the 20th of March).

Bodley asked that all members of the PAC attend the May 1st celebration for the Pullman Civic Trust and the City of Pullman's opening of the River Walk. The celebration will begin at 5:30 starting at Pine Street Square.

Web Site: Pieron will share the PAC web site with the group on the next scheduled meeting.

Next regular meeting is April 13th, 4pm, Young Conference Room, Neil Public

The meeting was adjourned at 5:13pm
