Dream Big @ Your Library

It's time to start dreaming. And we're not just talking about little, teeny-tiny, itty-bitty, small dreams! We're talking about dreaming BIG, BIG, BIG and hope you'll do the same as we all celebrate Summer Reading at Neill Public Library. Kids of all ages are invited to participate by enjoying great books, attending wonderful programs and much, much, more! From BIRTH through TEENS there are free, fun activities for one and all to enjoy. For more information, contact Children's Librarian, Kathleen Ahern at 509-338-3258 or visit our website www.neill-lib.org

Regular Library Programs for Adults

Knit and Crochet

The Good Yarns Knitting and Crocheting Group meets every Friday at the library from 12:00-1:30pm in the Hecht Meeting Room. Join fellow fiber enthusiasts to work on your projects, share tips, and get new ideas. All skill levels are welcome. Over age 18.

Grand Avenue Book Club

The Grand Avenue Book Club meets at 6:30pm on the first Thursday of each month in the library's Hecht meeting room. It's a time for lively discussion and light refreshments. The GAB Club recently enjoyed a virtual visit from Mary Roach, the author of Stiff: The Curious Lives of Human Cadavers. Pick up a bookmark for a list of upcoming reads and get answers to your questions by contacting Rezina Emmons or Jodi Prout at 509-334-3595.

BETWEEN THE COVERS

Summer Reading Program for Adults

Adults! You can participate in the Summer Reading Program, too! There is no registration required: just fill out a drawing slip for every title you read from the library. Stop by the library to find out about our eBook prize drawing!

Special programs for adults are also scheduled throughout the summer, including presentations by the following guest speakers:

- ☆ Hans Van Dongen, Ph.D., Research Professor at the Sleep and Performance Research Center, WSU Spokane, who will talk about the effects of fatigue on performance
- ☆ Kathryn Jewett, 3rd year Ph.D. student in Department of Veterinary and Comparative Anatomy, Pharmacology, and Physiology, who will present her research on the interplay of food, sleep, and body temperature.

Stop by the library to find out about our other presentations! For more information contact Adult Services Librarian, Sarah Morrison at 509-338-3251 or visit our website www.neill-lib.org
