Suspect Arrested in Credit Card Fraud Investigation

WOODINVILLE, WA - On December 6, 2011, Pullman Police Department Detectives, with the assistance of members of the King County Sheriffs Office, Woodinville Police Department and the U.S. Secret Service Electronic Crimes Task Force served a search warrant on the residence of 41-year-old Michael Patrick Bell in Woodinville, Washington.

Bell was arrested by Woodinville Police Officers for Identity Theft and is a suspect in at least five compromised credit card cases from Pullman, in which cards were used at multiple locations throughout King County, WA.

Pullman Police Department's investigation of the fraudulent credit card cases continues.
